Marcelo Fioresi Guermandi

Milan, Italy

Front-end Developer & UX/UI Designer

I'm a professional with more than five years of customer service and experience. Currently interested and motivated to work with Design and Development of Web and Mobile Applications as a Front-end Developer. I'm studying to become a Full Stack Developer. I'm looking for opportunities to enter the IT world. My area of work for the last few years has been another. But as everything changes, so have I and I've decided to look for my dream job.
